

Mutual Aid: Memorandum of Understanding

between the Linn County Auditor's Office and the Johnson County Auditor's Office

The Linn County Auditor's Office and the Johnson County Auditor's Office (hereinafter referred to as "the Parties"):

RECOGNIZING the benefit of mutual collaboration in elections;

DESIRING to support each other during times of crisis;

BEING COGNIZANT of the current COVID-19 public health crisis;

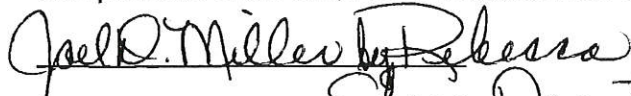

and BELIEVING that such support is in the best interest of both Linn and Johnson County voters;

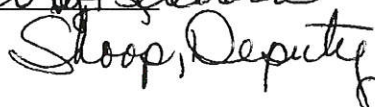

HAVE AGREED AS FOLLOWS:

Should either party's office or staff be unable to perform their regular duties and procedures due to the COVID-19 public health crisis, each Party shall, subject to federal and state laws, rules, and regulations, endeavor to provide the following mutual assistance. This assistance includes but is not limited to:

- Providing shared workspace and access to Ivoters;
- Providing staffing assistance in the processing of election materials such as DoTs;
- Assisting in training workers or providing facilities for the training of workers;
- Communicating with the media or other interested parties as appropriate;
- Providing vehicle assistance should it be necessary or available;
- Assisting in any other reasonable way to ensure that elections proceed without disruption.

Upon the completion of this assistance, it is expected that the parties shall attempt to compensate each other for the reasonable costs associated with such assistance.

Joel D. Miller
Linn County Auditor

Rebecca Shoop, Deputy

Travis Weipert

Johnson County Auditor